QiGong at Tucker House - English only

Date and Time: Thursday, September 25 10:00 am

Address: 1731 Tucker Road

What is QiGong?

"Qigong is a health art that combines various body, breathing and meditative techniques from the Chinese tradition. These exercises have been practised in China for thousands of years for their physical and mental health benefits. The term qi refers to vital energy, which, according to Chinese medicine, is the basis of our health and vitality. The term gong refers to the mastery of an art that is acquired through regular practice and discipline, and the term Qigong refers to exercises that involve working on vital energy. It's a science that teaches us how to cultivate and balance our energies." (Institut de Qigong du Québec).

Our teacher, Nicole Beaulac, is trained to offer the Eden method.
